

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives honor treasured residents of the Show-Me State who have experienced the joys and blessings of a prosperous marriage; and

Whereas, fifty years ago on July 2, 1955, Lloyd Ray Carr took the hand of his beautiful bride, Juanita Gaddie, as they began their commitment to a lifetime of shared love and devotion by exchanging wedding vows during a solemn ceremony witnessed by Clayton Carr, brother of the groom, and Martha McCormack, on July 2, 1955, at the home of Brother Ed Hampton of Louisiana, Missouri; and

Whereas, in the years since that heavenly day, Lloyd and Juanita Carr have had the pleasure of watching their family grow to include three sons and three daughters-in-law, Michael and Tammy Carr, Brian and Dianne Carr, and Roger and Melanie Carr; and six grandchildren, Kevin, Robert, Jessica, Brent, Danielle, and Taylor; and

Whereas, a member of Grassy Creek Baptist Church in Louisiana, Lloyd Carr is known as a dedicated family man who generously provided his loved ones with a comfortable home and secure future through his successful endeavors as a farmer, an occupation from which he is now retired; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and outstanding homemaker, Juanita Carr has further distinguished herself as a member of Southside Baptist Church and a former employee of the International Shoe Company in Vandalia; and

Whereas, Lloyd and Juanita Carr have found the road to happiness by putting all of their energy, love, and ambition into their marriage and by knowing that a successful union is built upon such strong qualities as sacrifice, dedication, and honesty; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Carr, residents of Farber, commemorated the glorious occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary with a special celebration on July 10, 2005, at the VFW Hall in Vandalia:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Lloyd and Juanita Carr for their tremendous success in achieving a half century of wedded bliss and in wishing them many happy and rewarding years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ray Carr.
